Dante,

Due to unforeseen complications, I will need to fly in to Reno the morning of Dec 15. My flight lands at 9:35am, and I can probably get to the Hill office shortly after 10:00am. Feel free to start without me if you have a full day planned.

Will you be sending out an agenda prior to the meeting? I'm trying to understand exactly who from my team should travel and appear in person versus potentially participating via telephone.

Thanks,

-jack
